

As Seen In

Feb. 15-21, 2008

WHO'S WHO | in Tax & Bankruptcy Law

DORIS L. MARTIN

Garfunkel, Wild & Travis PC

Doris L. Martin is a partner at Garfunkel, Wild & Travis PC in Great Neck.

Martin heads the personal services and estate planning practice, discharge planning - patient rights and elder law, as well as the tax groups.

Martin joined the firm in 1994. Her practice encompasses all aspects of estate planning including asset protection, wills, revocable trusts, charitable trusts, insurance trusts, qualified personal residence trusts, grantor retained annuity trusts, family limited partnerships, retirement plans and asset allocation. She also practices in all aspects of estate and trust administration including probate, post-mortem planning, estate tax returns and the establishment and operation of tax-exempt organizations for individual clients and tax-exempt organizations.

Prior to joining Garfunkel, Wild & Travis, Martin was an associate in the trust and estates departments at Paul, Weiss, Wharton, Rifkind & Garrison LLP and Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett LLP.

Martin has particular expertise in estate planning for physicians.

She earned a juris doctor from NY University School of Law and an A.B., cum laude, from Smith College. She is admitted to practice in NYS and the NY Supreme Court, Appellate Division. Martin is a member of the NYS Bar Association, the Nassau County Bar Association and the American Bar Association.

Founded in 1980, Garfunkel, Wild & Travis maintains one of the most active health care practices in the Northeast, while also providing services to many non-health related clients. Always at the forefront of federal and state developments, the firm meets a full range of needs including EPA/environmental issues, strategic planning, complex transactions, exempt and taxable financing, white collar defense, estate planning, elder law, litigation, tax issues, real estate, fraud and abuse, licensing, capital formation and bankruptcy.